BREAKING: OMG: Google Growth Strategist Exposes Google's Search Engine Manipulation For Kamala Harris's Campaign (VIDEO)

by Cristina Laila

O'Keefe Media Group on Monday released undercover video of a Google Growth Strategist exposing Google's search engine manipulation for Kamala Harris's campaign.

Dakota Leazer revealed that Google has been actively coordinating with the Kamala Harris campaign, manipulating its search engine advertisements to favor her in the 2024 election.

As previously reported, the Harris Campaign edited news headlines with Google search ads to make it appear major news outlets such as Reuters, CBS News, CNN, NPR and AP are on her side.

While these major news outlets are shilling for Harris, her campaign edited the news headlines without the outlets' consent or knowledge.

DOJ: Google Harmed News Publishers With Ad Monopoly

The ads say "sponsored" but the outlets did not publish the text. The favorable headlines were written by the Harris campaign.

"Google says a 'glitch' occurred which allowed the Harris campaign to run paid ads with fake headlines to deceive voters." the outlet reported.

The Trump campaign didn't run these types of Google ads. Only Kamala Harris did.

Per O'Keefe Media Group:

"Google was essentially promoting through its ads rhetoric that was very pro-Kamala," admits Dakota Leazer, a Growth Strategist at Google, during an undercover date with an OMG American Swiper journalist. Leazer reveals that Google has been actively coordinating with the Kamala Harris campaign, manipulating its search engine advertisements to favor her in the 2024 election. He explains, "It seemed to link out to legitimate news publication sites. So, it seemed like it was an ad from PBS, but it was really an ad for the Kamala campaign," making users believe they were reading unbiased reports from reputable sources.

Leazer also confesses that Google's primary objective is to generate ad revenue through fear-based content, explaining, "I think whatever demographic is most fearful is going to be most profitable." According to Leazer, the left currently represents the most fearful demographic, which is why Google has been pushing pro-Kamala narratives for profit, explaining "I think right now the left is more fearful than the right is."

He further states, "It's all about the share of the stock price," revealing that Google's liberal bias is not just political, but tied to financial gain. He adds, "I think Google has a belief that one side will allow them to make more money," revealing Google's profit motives through driving political manipulation.

Leazer's admission mirrors past media motives, including CNN Technical Director Charlie Chester's claim that "fear sells," reinforcing the role of big tech and media in shaping public perception through fear and bias.

Questions Americans Deserve To Have Kamala Harris Answer

By: Jordan Boyd

Now more than ever, voters deserve to hear Harris face tough questions about her historically terrible track record and radical views.

Jordan Boyd

Visit on Twitter @jordanboydtx

More Articles

Vice President Kamala Harris is working overtime to distance herself from the Biden administration and the destruction it wreaked on the republic.

As the first presidential debate between Harris and Donald Trump rapidly approaches, voters deserve now more than ever to hear Harris finally face tough questions about her historically terrible track record and radical views.

Ever since Democrats successfully couped President Joe Biden out of the 2024 race, corporate media have repeatedly and deliberately failed to hold Harris accountable for her many lies. This pattern of ignoring her unpopularity and penchant for falsehoods continued throughout the Democratic National Convention and well into her short, security-blanket-wrapped sit down with CNN's Dana Bash.

Here are 26 questions "World News Tonight" anchor David Muir and "ABC News Live Prime" anchor Linsey Davis should make Harris answer from the debate stage on Tuesday night.

1. If Joe Biden is not mentally fit to run for president, how is he mentally fit to remain president?

As President Joe Biden's right-hand woman, Harris had a front-row seat to his mental and physical deterioration. Yet, she never said a word to indicate it. Instead, she routinely issued statements claiming Biden was fit enough to remain president.

It was only months later that she participated in the soft coup that replaced Biden as the 2024 Democrat presidential nominee but kept him as the face of the current administration.

2. Speaking of Biden's mental fitness, who is the president right now?

Because Biden spent much of the last month on vacation with no public working schedule, many Americans are wondering who is running the White House.

Moderators should ask Harris when she last spoke to the president and what that conversation was about. Considering the corporate media's willingness to cover up Biden's incompetence until it was inconvenient for them and Democrats, they likely won't.

3. How often do you talk to Barack Obama and do you take his policy advice?

Former President Barack Obama is suspected of leading the Democrat operation to replace Biden on the 2024 presidential ticket. If Harris is leaning into the powerful Democrat player as a policy adviser, Americans deserve to know.

4. Why won't you talk to a press that won't even ask you tough questions?

Harris' campaign and corporate media made a big show of her shopping around for her first big sitdown since becoming the 2024 Democrat presidential nominee. The VP's reluctance to sit down with one of the corporate media's very Democrat-friendly reporters, host a news conference unless it is tailored to her wishes, or participate in a debate that doesn't meet all of her demands deserves an explanation.

5. Where do you stand on packing the Supreme Court?

The issues page on Harris' campaign website claims she supports "common-sense Supreme Court reforms." A deeper dive, however, shows her plans to amplify a manufactured ethics scandal and enact term limits for justices are all part of a radical scheme designed to help Democrats pack the high bench.

6. How do you reconcile your administration's undemocratic record with your supposed defense of democracy?

Democrats, including Harris, have spent the last several years claiming they are the last defenders of democracy and "freedom." The Biden-Harris administration, however, became the biggest danger to those principles by raiding its top political opponent's home, indicting him, charging him, pushing the narratives behind attempts to kick him off of the ballot, and denying him the necessary Secret Service protection he needed to prevent an attempted assassination.

Shortly after that, Democrat activists yanked Biden from the ballot against primary voters' wishes and installed a woman who failed to earn a single delegate vote the first time she ran for president in 2020.

Among Harris' many campaign priorities is ensuring "someone as dangerous as Donald Trump should never again be allowed to serve as commander-in-chief."

7. How do you reconcile your wildly unpopular track record with your goal of becoming president?

Harris is so bad at governing that she received the worst vice presidential rating in the history of modern polling. Combined with her abysmal job approval ratings, which often rank worse than Biden's, that rating does not suggest that she's competent enough for a presidential promotion.

8. Why did your administration deny Donald Trump the security he needed and requested, given the threats against him? Have you called him to apologize? Have you spoken to him at all since he was nearly assassinated?

Evidence suggests that the Biden-Harris administration kneecapped former President Donald Trump's security team ahead of an assassination attempt at his Butler, Pennsylvania, rally.

Harris claimed to denounce the shooting but has yet to publicly apologize for using her position in power to spew rhetoric that fuels calls for violence against Trump and his supporters.

9. Why do you deserve another four years in the White House?

When Biden and Harris took the White House at the beginning of 2021, gas prices were reasonable, interest rates and inflation were low, groceries were affordable, Arab countries were making peace with Israel, and Putin was on a leash in Russia. Less than four years later, gas and grocery costs are through the roof, interest rates are making home ownership impossible for tens of millions of Americans, Israel is under attack, and Russia is at war with Ukraine.

Harris claims she will "fix" the nation's price and foreign policy woes. Yet, she's accomplished nothing toward that end the last three and half years in power. Now she's trying to distance herself from her current administration's disastrous track record.

10. How do you explain your selection of Tim Walz as running mate in view of all his false claims?

Harris' VP pick Minnesota Gov. Tim Walz has a long track record of deliberately misleading voters on everything from his military record and rank to how his children were conceived.

Harris should explain not only whether she was aware of his lies before he became her running mate but also why she appears to have accepted his record of fabrication and embellishment.

11. What is one effective thing you've done in office that is good for all Americans?

A majority of Americans believe that, under Biden-Harris, the country is headed in the wrong direction.

12. How do you reconcile your desire for open borders with corporate media's unsubstantiated assertions that you support a border wall between the U.S. and Mexico?

The Democrat propagandists at Axios wrongfully asserted in a headline last month that "Harris flip-flops on building the border wall." The writers claimed the VP has become more "hawkish" about the border invasion and "pledges to spend hundreds of millions of dollars on the wall along the southern border." In reality, nothing about Harris' public desire for amnesty and open borders has changed.

13. What is an acceptable amount of illegal immigration into the U.S. each year? Zero? A million? 10 million?

During Harris' tenure as Biden's border czar, an estimated 10 to 12 million border crossers have poured into the country. This unprecedented number of foreign criminals has overwhelmed the nation's cities and brought violent consequences to innocent Americans.

Yet, Harris pledged at the Democratic National Convention to sign a disastrous border bill that would allow nearly another 2 million illegal aliens into the country in one year. The many, many voters who are increasingly concerned with the ongoing border invasion deserve to know how many illegal border crossers Harris plans to allow into the country if she is elected president.

14. What, if anything, did you do as border czar to curb the chaos plaguing the U.S.-Mexico border?

Under Harris' watch, the Biden administration ushered in the deadliest border invasion in the world, which has led to an influx of illegal border crossers, violent crime, fatal drugs, and infrastructure problems. Instead of pressing Harris on her role in the crisis, corporate media love to pretend that the VP was never in charge.

15. Why should foreign criminals be allowed to vote in U.S. elections?

Several top Democrats, including Rep. Jamie Raskin, have publicly demanded illegal border crossers be allowed to vote in U.S. elections. Harris should explain where she falls on the latest issue that threatens to disenfranchise Americans.

16. Why do you believe children who survive botched abortions deserve to die?

Harris voted against the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act and has repeatedly lamented similar life-saving laws in Republican states.

17. What protections, if any, do you support for the lives of unborn children, especially when they're old enough to survive outside the womb and/or can feel pain?

Considering she refuses to name any limits that she supports, Harris' extreme desire to codify abortion through all nine months of pregnancy against Americans' wishes is only expected to grow if she retakes office.

18. Why should 'women's rights' include men using women's bathrooms, showering in women's locker rooms, and competing with women?

Harris claims to be a champion of women's rights, but it was under her watch that the Biden administration rewrote Title IX to allow boys to infiltrate girls' protected spaces in education settings. The Biden administration's transgender activism gives men permission to expose their genitals to women and wallop them in their own sports.

19. How do you reconcile your pro-Palestine statements with your alleged support for Israel's right to defend itself against terrorists?

Harris may have given "a cursory nod to Israel's right to defend itself," but she's spent most of her time speaking about the Middle Eastern conflict blaming the Jewish nation instead of Hamas terrorists for the "human suffering in Gaza" and "food insecurity."

Additionally, Harris believes the pro-terrorist activists taking over college campuses, occupying highways, and defacing military cemeteries are merely "showing exactly what the human emotion should be."

20. Why have you refused to meet with the families of the 13 American soldiers who were killed during your administration's Afghanistan withdrawal?

Harris claims she was the "last person in the room" when the Biden administration decided to commence its botched Afghanistan withdrawal but has yet to face or enforce accountability for the disaster. Trump's VP pick, Sen. J.D. Vance, also recently noted that Harris "refuses to show up, refuses to even call the families whose children are dead because of her leadership."

21. How will Americans have 'joy' under a Harris-Walz administration?

Harris' campaign, the DNC, and their allies in the corporate media have made "joy" the center of their 2024 campaign strategy. Harris, however, has not explained if the half of the country the administration vilifies as "MAGA extremists" will benefit from that so-called joy.

22. How can voters trust you aren't lying about what you'll do with the most powerful office in the world?

Harris has a long history of lying and deception. Since she took over Biden's campaign for president, Harris and her communications team have publicly repudiated her radical track record on the border, protecting violent criminals, putting low-cost energy companies out of business, and much more.

23. Where do you stand on banning fracking?

Despite her 2019 on-the-record call to ban fracking, Harris' campaign recently claimed the Democrat nominee, if elected, "would not ban fracking."

Less than one month later, Harris' Communications Director Michael Tyler confirmed that the candidate had not changed her mind. Americans, however, have yet to hear a clear answer on Harris' position from the woman herself.

24. How will Americans keep their health insurance amid your plans to strip it?

Harris claimed in 2019 that she would not only strip millions of Americans of their health coverage by eliminating all private insurance but also provide taxpayer-funded health care for illegal border crossers.

25. How will free speech fare under your ongoing calls for Big Tech censorship?

In 2019, Harris called on then-Twitter CEO Jack Dorsey to suspend Donald Trump's account because she deemed his tweets incendiary. More recently, under the Biden-Harris White House's direction, Big Tech companies censored Americans who expressed dissenting views on Covid and politics.

26. How many more journalists will you prosecute for doing their jobs?

As California attorney general, Harris prosecuted journalists David Daleiden and Sandra Meritt for exposing Planned Parenthood for trafficking the body parts of aborted babies. Part of her prosecution involved a raid on Daleiden's house, where investigators allegedly seized footage further implicating the abortion giant and handed it over to Harris' abortion campaign donors.
