GOP web gurus: "We lost last election because Google is already using Facebook's "Mood Manipulation" tricks on voters but PAYBACK has already begun"

The GOP has been researching IT pretty deeply in the last few years. Researching email hard drive storage crashes, HHS medical sign-up systems and quite a bit about data-mining consumers and online mood manipulation techniques that the UK has now filed charges against Facebook for using. The GOP got GEEKY!

Apparently some people have an issue with the secret manipulation of their free will!

Whiners!

C'mon, this is MUCH more efficient. Why tamper with voting machines, and get all greasy, when you can simply tamper with people's minds?

Campaign directors, for savvy politicians, will tell you that they believe that 75% of Americans are as dumb as doorknobs and will simply follow the "loudest noise". That is how they win elections. If the mental capacity is that sad, isn't it, technically, "abuse" to trick them with subliminal internet voter mood manipulation?

The White House poll numbers, lowest ever, are due, in large part, to the new GOP IT take-over of the DNC controlled internet.

Now that they have figured out that Google, Twitter and Facebook were the DNC's tactical secret weapon for voter manipulation, they have put counter-measures in place that have pretty awesome financing to back them up.

If you look at the VC's and owners that control Amazon, Google, Twitter, Facebook and LinkedIn; and you look at their web-cohabitation sign-up and data-mining systems; and you look at the politics and campaign contributions of those owners; and you look at the private "business conferences" they all attended at the same time; and if you look at the photos, in the White House conference room, of who the only companies on Earth were that got to come to the White House for the closed door meetings on "Internet Privacy Issues" Also-known-as the "Emperors new clothes are falling off emergency CYA meetings"; and a large set of other similarities, than no other companies on the planet share,... then the situation will become obvious to you.

The GOP is in a Silicon Valley recruiting war to steal the "good ones" from Google and the DNC-controlled social media companies.

Now that the public, and Congress, are realizing how insidious this is, watch for class-action lawsuits and a federal ethics hearing on: "Voter Mood Manipulation!". Multiple foreign nations have already started the ball rolling on this.

This could get exciting.

Send in your links and let's discuss...

ON BACKGROUND FROM A WHITE HOUSE OFFICIAL:

Tomorrow, President Obama will meet with executives from leading tech companies to discuss progress made in addressing performance and capacity issues with HealthCare.gov and how government can better deliver IT to maximize innovation, efficiency and customer service. The meeting will also address national security and the economic impacts of unauthorized intelligence disclosures. Finally, the President will discuss ways his Administration can partner with the tech sector to further grow the economy, create jobs and address issues around income inequality and social mobility.

GENERAL VS. ILLUMINATI SEE HERE>>>

Google's use of undisclosed mood manipulation of the public to hype up it's investor/Vc's portfolios by ARTIFICIALLY inflating those VC's stock value perception on the web (ie: Tesla, Ener1, Solyndra, etc.) via mood manipulation falsehoods or "inaccurate ordering, in a contrived manner, of public information" is a felony violation of a pretty big chunk of securities laws.

Of course Holder won't let anybody file any charges, again, because this is yet another crime that will make the White House look bad. When, exactly, did PR policy get moved ahead of law enforcement? Just curious?

These cover-ups are getting so obvious that even those dumb-as-a-doorknob 75% can see through them.

Our lawyers just went over Google's massive Terms of Use document. It is written so that no living human could ever understand it, or tolerate reading the whole thing. They wrote it to include the kitchen sink BUT, they actually DID LEAVE OUT DISCLOSING MOOD AND PSYCHOLOGICAL MANIPULATION. This leaves Google open to a lawsuit by ANY INDIVIDUAL WHO THOUGHT THAT GOOGLE SOLICITED THEM TO USE THEIR FREE PRODUCTS AND THEN ABUSED THEM WITH MIND TAMPERING!

Physical abuse = hurting your brain. Emotional abuse = hurting you emotionally and affecting your mood. They could get sued on both issues.

Indeed, this will get exciting.
